Walking:

From Harvard Square T station, take the Church St. exit. Come up the stairs and turn right, go straight one block until you come to a light and then bear left onto Garden St., keeping Cambridge Common on your right. Go straight down Garden St., passing the Sheraton Commander Hotel on left; next you will come to a fork in the road at a traffic light: stay to the right, continuing on Garden St. Just after the fork, you will pass Chauncy Street on the right, then take the next right onto Walker St. Pass two houses, then turn right into Walker St. Place and look for the last house on the right.
